

The Keratoconus Self-Help and Support Association

10th Conference

Saturday 24th September 2022

at the Moorfields Education Hub 15 Ebenezer Street London N17NP and online

PROGRAMME OF EVENTS

- 10:00am Registration and coffee
- 10:30am Welcome
John Thatcher - KC Group Trustee
- 10:40am Keratoconus: the next steps in genetic research
Professor Stephen Tuft
- 11:10am Reducing glare, haloes and starbursts: treatments and emerging technology
Dr Trusit Dave
- 11:50am Developments in detection, progression and therapies for Keratoconus
Professor Martin Rubinstein
- 12:30pm Lunch
- 1:30pm Delving deeper into the structural basis of Keratoconus
Dr Sally Hayes
- 2:10pm KC, Covid, clinics and coping
Mike Oliver, KC Group trustee; Julia Smythe, ECLO at Moorfields Croydon Clinic : Ken Pullum, a senior optometrist at Moorfields.
Highlighting the effects of Covid lockdowns and whether (or not) the “system” coped then, is coping now and any changes moving forward.
- 3.00pm A general exchange of experience/views open to all and, time permitting, a panel Q & A session to bring matters to a close.
- 4.00pm Formal close of conference
Tea and informal discussion to follow